FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 23, 1902

The savage islanders of the south Pacific believe that the world is a cocoanut shell of enormous dimensions, at the top of which is a single aperture at the top of which is a single aperture communicating with the upper air, where human beings dwell. At the very bottom of this imaginary shell is a stem gradually tapering to a point which represents the beginning of all things. This point is a spirit or demon without human form, whose name is Root of All Existence. By him the entire fabric of creation is sustained. In the interior of the cocoanut shell, at its very bottom, lives a female demon. So narrow is the space into which she is crowded that she is obliged to sit forever with knee and chin touching. Her name is The Very Betouching. Her name is The Very Be-ginning, and from her are sprung nu-merous spirits. They inhabit five dif-ferent floors, into which the great co-connut is divided. From certain of these spirits mankind is descended. The islanders, regarding themselves as the only real men and women, were formerly accustomed to regard strangers as evil spirits in the guise of hu-manity, whom they killed when they could, offering them as sacrifices,

The Growth of Seaweed.

Seaweeds vary surprisingly in their habits of life. Some species grow altogether beneath the water, attaching themselves below the lowest tide level, other frequent heights where they are left dry at every retreating tide, while yet are found in situations where they are scarcely ever covered by water. Whereas most of them at the wholesale and RETAIL GROCERS exceptions to the rule, among which the most remarkable is the sargasso or gulf weed, which floats on the surface of the ocean. Immense fields of it are seen by the navigator, extend-ing as far as the eye can reach. It is sometimes so abundant as seriously to interfere with the progress of ships, and it was this which so alarmed the crew of Columbus on his first voyage

A Skinning Process.

"This," said the fond father to the dermatological expert, "seems to be a pretty big bill for the treatment you have given my daughter."

"It was a difficult treatment," ex-plained the skin doctor. "You see, we had to remove all the cuticle from her cheeks and graft a new epidermis upon "Well," said the father, reaching for

The Mace In England.

Every deliberative civil body in England, even down to the town councils, is provided with a mace, which is brought forth with solemn ceremony, and placed on the table before the de liberations begin. In one or two city councils a candlestick of silver is added to the mace, and acts passed in the absence of these objects are supposed

Realism Most Attractive. "Do you believe in realism in the drama?" asked the friend.

"I do," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes. "Many is the time I would have given a great deal to play Macbeth with a real banquet."-Washington Star.

MEDICINAL. Dyspepsia Cure

Indigestion effects so many organs besides the stomach that the nature of the disease is sometimes mistaken. Headaches, giddiness, and so-called heart trouble are usually caused by indigestion alone. In such cases it is the stomach trouble which must be cured. Kodol Dyspepsis Cure restores heaith by digesting your food while the stomach rests. Dieting doesn't mean rest but starvation. You should relieve the stomach ac without weakening the system by denying yourself proper food. With a sound stomach your other complaints will soon disappear. "After seven years' suffering from indigestion" writes Mrs. Annie Alcorn of Merideth, Pa. "I was cured by three bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."
